AACo 2019 Seasonal recruitment

FAQ

HOW DO I APPLY?

All of our available roles for Season 2019 are advertised on our website www.aaco.com.au/people-careers

To apply, complete the application form and send this with your resume to hr@aaco.com.au

The online form will guide you through the submission process.

HOW OLD DO I HAVE TO BE?

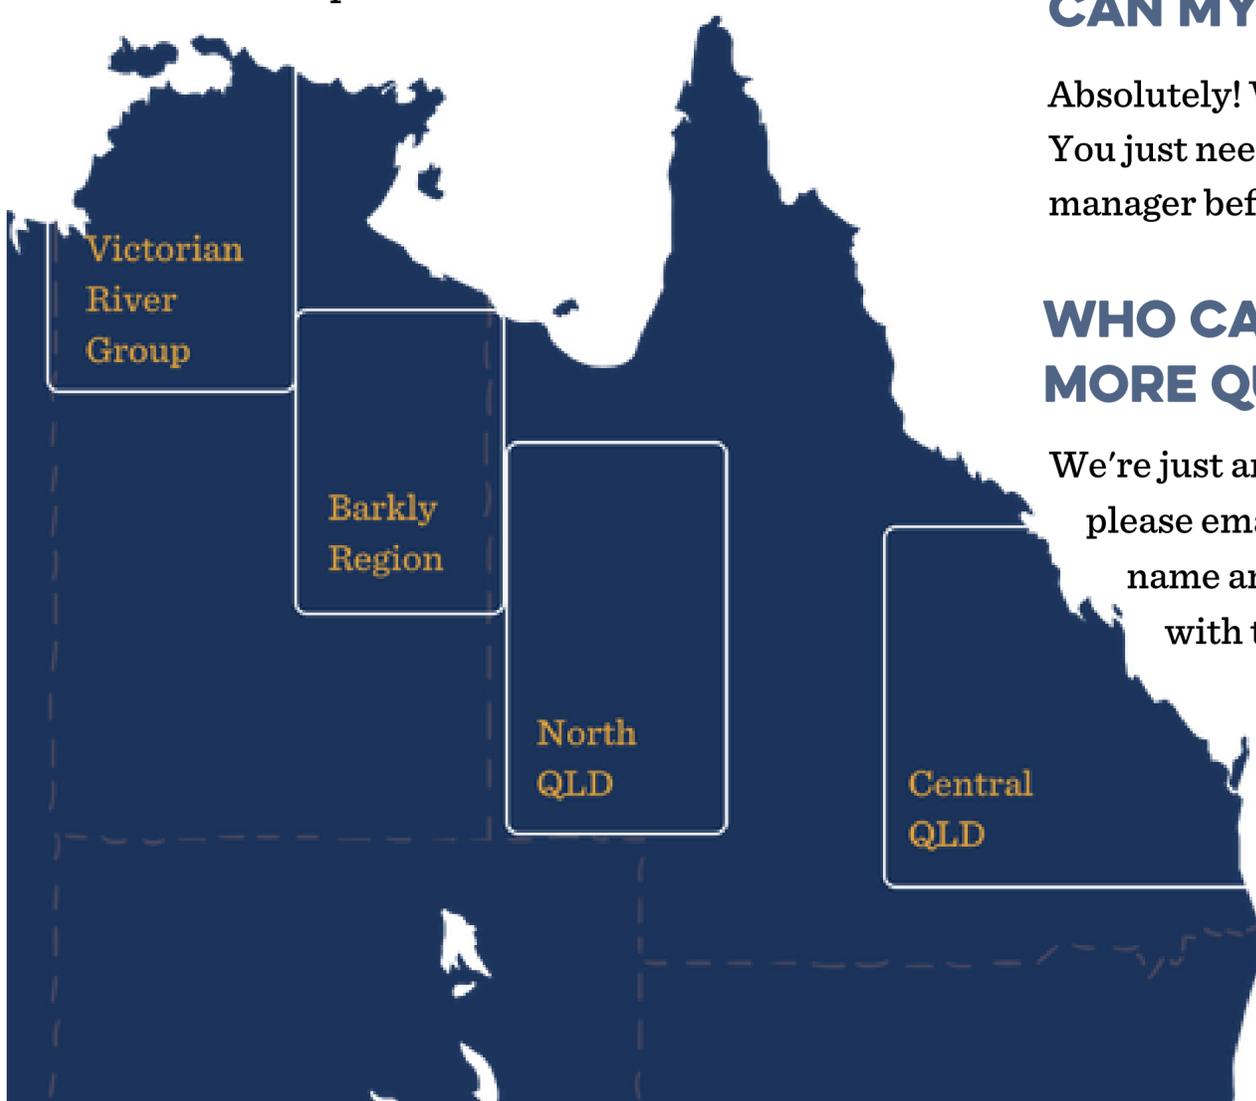

We're most interested in your skills and what you can contribute to the AACo crew.

WHAT ROLES ARE AVAILABLE?

Seasonal recruitment opportunities include: station hands, machinery operators, cooks, bore runners, mechanics and domestics.

WHERE ARE AACO STATIONS?

Our stations are located across four regions as shown on the map below.

WILL I RECEIVE TRAINING?

Yes, if you join at the start of a season we have a week of orientation in late February where we provide training on tasks, and work safety. In addition, we provide skills training throughout your career with AACo.

HOW MUCH DO I GET PAID?

AACo offers a competitive salary and provides additional extras such as free accommodation, meals, Wi-Fi and a uniform allocation.

WHAT SOCIAL ACTIVITIES HAPPEN ON PROPERTY?

Our properties are hugely social. Most properties have a social club; a place for you to have a drink, watch the footy, or just chill out and discuss the events of a long day. We also support and encourage our staff to attend camp drafts, rodeos, and a whole variety of other social events going on around our properties!

CAN MY FOLKS VISIT?

Absolutely! We think it's great that family want to visit! You just need to ensure you discuss this with your manager before making any arrangements.

WHO CAN I TALK TO IF I HAVE MORE QUESTIONS?

We're just an email away. If you need to know more please email hr@aaco.com.au with your question/s, name and phone number and we'll happily reply with the answer or give you a call.
