

Role: Mechanic

Location: Canobie Station

of openings: 2

We offer

- Competitive Remuneration
- Air-Conditioned Accommodation
- Prepared meals in the station kitchen
- Development and Training
- Transfer Opportunities at the end of each season

Who

- We are looking to share the Australian experience and require employees from a diverse range of backgrounds with a variety of skills, talents and aspirations, and a strong work ethic to join us
- Throughout our AACo operations, safety is a top priority and, as such, all employees must be absolutely committed to following our disciplined safety policies and procedures.

Our site

Canobie Station is located 200km north of Cloncurry. The property is predominantly a breeding station running AA Composites cattle. The Cloncurry Saxby and Flinders River's runs through the property's providing permanent water. Canobie has a good mixture of black soils open downs, River country, Gidgee and lighter red spinifex country. The properties, Wondoola, Alcalá and Lyrian operate as part of the Canobie aggregation with a total size of 691,710 Ha and an estimate carrying capacity of 50,000 AE's.

Duties & responsibilities

Your role is key to the success of the business. On any given day this could include, but is not limited to:

- Detailed Servicing and record Keeping of all Plant and Machinery
- Fabrication Works, Repairs
- Servicing of Hino Generators for Station Power
- Assisting in Bore Repairs (Mono & Submersible) Training Provided

- Perform your job in a safe manner in line with AACo safety programs and procedures
- Take responsibility for your safe work behaviour
- Assisting elsewhere on the property if required
- Assisting elsewhere on the property if required
- Perform your job in a safe manner in line with AACo safety programs and procedures

Experience required

- Current manual drivers license
- Experience working on a cattle station is preferred
- Mechanical Trade Certificates
- Own Tools is preferred
- Previous experience in a similar role an advantage
- Appropriate licenses to operate the machinery required is preferred
- Be able to meet all the educational and experience pre-requisites for the appointed level as specified in the current relevant AACo Certified Agreement.
- A friendly and flexible approach and someone who likes to be part of a strong team
- Resourceful approach

Accommodation

- Days start at 5:30/6am with a hot breakfast made by the station cook (when on site)
- Lunch for the day in the large communal kitchen
- Carry out your daily tasks manage your own smoko breaks
- After work visit the social club which is open for an hour every afternoon and till late Friday and Saturday nights. It is a great place to catch up with other staff and visitors, while enjoying some sport on the big screen.
- There is a communal lounge for all staff staying in quarters with a small kitchen for snacks and a cuppa

Start Date

ASAP

Additional Notes

- This job can be physically strenuous (demanding) from time to time. You will be expected to be able to walk, climb, bend, kneel, lift, grip, grasp, push and pull various tools and equipment. You will need the ability to frequently lift, push and pull from 10–20 kilo's and occasionally more.
- This job will require the ability to ascend/descend ladders.
- You will be required to wear personal protective equipment, including hats, gloves, safety glasses, covered shoes, and respiratory protection and ear protection as appropriate.
- This job requires the ability to comprehend written and oral operational and safety instructions and related rules, policies and memos, and to communicate clearly with your co-workers and supervisors.

Applications

To apply for this position,
click here.

